MESSAGE FROM REUNION COMMITTEE

It has been 44 years since some of us have been together. Those of us here have survived four traumatic decades filled with wars, political assassinations, student revolts, drugs, religious cults- and what's that thing called "television"?

The values we learned here seem to have been swept away with the changes of the now "modern world". However, they are values we feel have stayed with each of us to see us through troubled days.

Graduation 1936 was an exciting time, each one ready to go into a bright new world to seek fame and fortune-mixed emotions. We have since been bruised by events, places, people, jobs, etc., and have succeeded in accomplishments our very own, doing our best to cope with the inevitable blows fate has dealt us. Some of us have traveled a more rocky road than we expected; but in the process we have matured as respected adults.

At so many reunions we hear of all the graduates being presented a copy of their pictures from the yearbook for their name tag. Sorry, 1936 was a "poor" year and therefore no yearbook. We will have to search each others faces to bring back our memories.

Today our sincerest hope for each of you present is that you may gain fulfillment in renewing your friendships with your classmates. As we look back on our days here at ECJC we knew we were building the foundations of our future. Be proud and grateful for your achievements.

We trust today, October 18, 1980, will be a highlight in your book of memories. The Reunion Committee extends to each of you a sincere welcome. We remember all of you, along with our years at East Central with warmth and affection and thank you for your dedication to join in this 1980 reunion.

ALMA MATER

Music by: Elizabeth Bustin Brannon

Lyrics by: Marguerite Dacey

Dear Alma Mater, we sing thy praise
In sweet remembrance of our college days
Comrades and teachers, friends so true
We give our love to you.

Long will we cherish the days spent with thee
Happy days of dreams, work and play so carefree
Deep in our hearts rests your memories true
Here's all our love to you.

Oh! Here's to the school that we love
May her colors keep waving above
The School that stands for honor, truth and right
The School for which her teams will always fight.

Oh! EJC for you we'll always strive
To keep our loyalty and spirit alive
We'll work for you, our love will always hold
Dear Black and Gold, O Dear Black and Gold
You'll live forever.

ON DECATUR

On Decatur, on Decatur, on to a winning score
Cheer the good ol' Black and Gold boys
On to victory, Rah! Rah! Rah!
On Decatur, On Decatur, true we'll ever be
Steadfast and loyal to old EJC.
